GAMEPLAY 3-WAY

STEP 1

PLAYER 1

PLAYER 2

This game has both players battling against each other and a third 'invisible' player.

Use only one person's deck for this game and remove all bonus cards.

Shuffle the deck and deal three piles of ten cards.

Each player takes a pile and keeps it face down in front of him.

The third pile is turned over and sits face up between the players.

WAR!

STEP 2

Player 1 picks the category for the first round. He looks at the card in the middle and picks a category he hopes his card will beat.

Both player 1 and player 2 turn over their top cards and see who has won.

TRICKY!
If the invisible player has strong cards it can be really hard to beat him!

PLAYER 1

INTELLIGENCE
2600 LOSE!

LOWEST RATING

PLAYER 2

INTELLIGENCE
5100 WIN!

STEP 3

The winner takes all three cards and places them on the bottom of his pile.

Now it's player 2's turn to decide the category.

Play continues until one of the three players has no more cards left (this will usually be the 'invisible' player).

PAIRING OFF

STEP 1

This solo game is trickier than it sounds. It's you versus the cards!

You will need 16 cards to play this, but don't worry about dupes – it's all about the decks.

Take the following cards from your collection:

4 x Alien 4 x Monster 4 x Human 4 x Hero

STEP 2

HERO!

MONSTER!

ALIEN!

ALIEN!

SNAP!

Shuffle the cards and deal four piles face down.

Turn over the top cards from each pile.

The aim is to remove cards in pairs of decks until none are left.

TOP TIP!
When you have a choice of cards to pair, it's normally best to take them from the biggest piles.

STEP 3

HERO!

ALIEN!

STUCK!

HUMAN!

Remove cards in pairs, turning over the top card of each pile as it gets revealed. Watch out, you might get stuck. It's not always possible to win this game on your first go, but try again and hone your skills!

CARD FOCUS

This Exterminator set card has one of the top Stamina ratings.

WHO IS HE? One of the alien Gelth who pretended to be harmless, to gain access to the Earth. They then entered dead bodies and started to kill other humans to possess.

WHAT'S HE LIKE? Rather scary. Trapped in a gaseous state, he was blue and soft-voiced, but when Gwyneth bridged the Rift, he glowed red and his harsh voice promised violence.

WHAT'S HE GOOD AT?

Lying! A few billion Gelth tried to enter the Earth, not the few first promised. He was skilled at entering dead bodies too.

FAQ

EPISODE 5

WORLD WAR THREE

The Doctor and Rose are trapped at 10 Downing Street, but can they save the world from the Slitheen?

Q Which episode is this?
This is the second part of the adventure when the Doctor and Rose are trying to stop the stinky Slitheen from destroying the planet.

Q When just one Slitheen is attacked, how come they all react – even if they're miles apart? They have a telepathic link, so when one dies or is injured, they all feel the pain.

Q What's this gas exchange they keep talking about?
The Slitheen have developed gas-based technology that lets them squeeze into human skin, but it has an unfortunate side effect – the excess gas is released as farts!

Q The Doctor says they should use vinegar to kill the Slitheen, but does it really dissolve calcium?
Yes! Some people use it to remove limescale (a form of calcium) that builds up on baths.

Q Is it really that easy to hack into websites like Mickey does?
Of course not! The Doctor knows far more than you do, including top-secret passwords.

Q Why does the Doctor fire a missile that could kill innocent people?
Some decisions are hard. He has to think about saving the entire planet, even if that means making a few sacrifices.

Mickey the Idiot... the fate of the world is in your hands.

HACKING!!!

Q What are those websites the Doctor tells Mickey to hack into?
The United Nations Intelligence Taskforce website contains loads of information on aliens and then Mickey uses the Royal Navy site to launch the missile attack.

HACK ATTACK!

Can you hack into the Royal Navy's website in time to save the Earth?
Stack up your cards and find out...

INSTRUCTIONS

1. This is a two player game. Remove all the bonus cards and shuffle the deck.
2. Turn the deck face down and put two counters on the start.
3. The first player draws a card and uses it to decide his route.
4. Player 1 puts his card to the bottom of the pile. Now it's player 2's turn.
5. The first player to reach the end wins.

START

The Doctor has told you to hack into the Royal Navy website. Look at your card and follow the first power symbol.

You use the BUFFALO password and get straight in! See how quickly you can find a suitable submarine. Look at your SPECIAL ABILITIES.

The screen locks so you have to restart the computer. Look at your card number. If it's even move on, but if it's odd miss a go.

The system requires further identity confirmation. If your INTELLIGENCE is over 5000 get through, but if it's under 5000 better luck next time.

You choose the HMS Taurean, but what should you do next? Look at your AGILITY score to decide.

You successfully log on and pick a submarine. Look at your AGILITY score to see what to do next...

You phone the Doctor and ask what type of missile you should pick. Your STAMINA score will decide what happens now.

You pick a UGM-84A sub harpoon and aim for Downing Street. If your card is a HERO your aim is good, but if not you will have to try again.

You select a missile and press the button to launch it. Look at your FEAR FACTOR rating to find out what happens...

YOU WIN!

You successfully destroyed the Sliheen. Luckily the Doctor and Rose survived the blast, but another adventure will come along soon enough...

BEHIND THE SCENES

DID YOU KNOW!

The cat masks are so delicate that they can only be used once.

This make-up is the cat's whiskers!

PURRFECT MAKE-UP

If you want to turn someone into a cat, all you need to do is call Doctor Who's special make-up artist Neill Gorton.

So you're going to become a cat – the kind that runs hospitals on New Earth. Lie back in the chair and let make-up artist Neill Gorton do his work. He begins by covering your face with a paste made from seaweed. It's the same stuff dentists use to take a mould of your teeth. Then he covers it with a bit of plaster, waits until it's dry, and pops it off. A few days later you come back for the filming. Neill's used the cast of your face to make a perfect cat mask. He's painted it, stuck fur on it, and even added some whiskers. All he has to do now is stick it on your face. Sadly for you, that takes two hours! There's a lot of very careful gluing. Then, when the mask is on Neill fills in all the gaps by painting the spaces around your mouth and eyes. When he's finished, it's so convincing that you'll scare mice stiff!

SOUR PUSS!

TIME TO GET STUCK IN!

All I need now is an actor!

IN THE SHOW

In Episode 15 the Doctor and Rose visit a hospital in the distant future where all the nurses are cats.

You've missed a bit!

Once the mask is on, you have to cover up the joins.

MEEEEOOW!

ITCHY!

Wearing cat make-up isn't too bad. Having something stuck to your face can get a bit hot but that's OK. Then after a while that mask really starts to itch. Better not scratch though, if you damage the make-up you'll be back in the chair to have it repaired. The real problem is at the end of the day – the make-up's stuck on with superstrong glue and if you try to pull it off, you'll take most or your face with it. You've got to be patient and get help from an expert.
